

MONUMENTAL MOMENTS IN

September

STATES ADDED TO THE Union

NOTABLE AMERICANS'

Birthdays

September 1, 1864

The Confederacy abandoned the city of Atlanta, GA. The following day, Union forces occupied the city, and created a major turning point in the Civil War.

September 2, 1945

WWII ended with Japan's official surrender. This marked the culmination of the war in the Pacific and the end of the global conflict.

September 3, 1783

The Treaty of Paris was signed, officially ending the American Revolution. This treaty recognized America as a nation independent of Great Britain.

September 17, 1787

The U.S. Constitution was signed in Philadelphia by 39 delegates and established the framework for the U.S government.

- September 4, 1822 - Rutherford B. Hayes (19th U.S. President)
- September 15, 1857 - William Howard Taft (27th U.S. President)
- September 15, 1890 - Agatha Christie (mystery writer)
- September 18, 1971 - Lance Armstrong (Cyclist)
- September 23, 1930 - Ray Charles (musician)
- September 24, 1784 - Zachary Taylor (12th U.S. President)
- September 26, 1774 - Johnny (John Chapman) Appleseed (American Pioneer)
- September 27, 1722 - Samuel Adams (American Revolutionary)

